

May 27, 2011 (COW 1406 - AT&T Shoplifting)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help this week to solve a shoplifting case.

On Monday, March 28, two male suspects worked together to steal two iPhone 4 phones from the AT&T store at 721-a Southpark Boulevard. One suspect loosened the security restraints from the phones as they sat on a display, and the second followed behind and removed the phones from the display, leaving the security tethers behind. The phones were valued at more than $1,000.

The first suspect was a heavysset black male, 18-25 years old, wearing a black and white striped polo shirt, blue jeans and a black ball cap with a gold design on the front. The second was also a black male, 18-25 years old. He had a close-cut hair style and wore black pants, a black jacket and a black T-shirt with a bright pink design on the front.

May 20, 2011 (COW 1405 - Buffalo Wild Wings Robbery)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help to identify and find two men who robbed the Buffalo Wild Wings at 12056 Southshore Pointe Road on Monday, Oct. 18, 2010 at about 9:10 a.m.

The suspects entered the business through an unlocked door and forced a manager and other employees into a back office. One suspect forced the manager to open a safe at gun point, and after the suspects received the money they locked all of the employees in a freezer. The witnesses described the first suspect as a masked black male, 5 feet, 9 inches tall and 210 pounds. The second suspect is described as a masked black male, 6 feet, 2 inches tall and 210 pounds.

May 13, 2011 (COW 1404 - Roadrunner Store Robbery)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help this week to solve an armed robbery.

On Sunday, Feb. 27, at approximately 8:50 a.m., a white male walked into the Roadrunner Convenience Store with his face covered. He was holding a silver or chrome handgun while he demanded the store's money. The suspect ran away toward the Colbrook Motel after obtaining cash, several packs of Newport cigarettes and two glass pipes.

The suspect is a white male between 18 and 25 years of age. He was described as being 5 feet, 8 inches tall, weighing 145 pounds and having blue eyes and brown, medium-length hair. He wore a brown jumpsuit, orange gloves, a blue, knit cap and a blue bandana, which covered his face.
