

August 26, 2011 (COW 1419 - Pick Pocket/Credit Card Fraud)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help to identify and find the people responsible for stealing credit cards from victims at local movie theaters in Midlothian. The credit cards were used later to make purchases at Old Navy, Target, Best Buy and various restaurants in Chesterfield. The crimes took place Sunday, Aug. 7, through Sunday, Aug. 14.

In these cases, thousands of dollars were charged to the victims' credit cards. The suspects are described as two black females. The suspects were photographed by security cameras making the purchases at a Target store.

August 19, 2011 (COW 1418 - Wallet Theft at Sheetz)

Case Closed

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help to identify a wallet thief.

On Wednesday, June 22, at approximately 9:30 a.m., a female customer dropped her wallet near a fuel pump at Sheetz, 2053 Huguenot Road in Chesterfield. A nearby male customer picked it up, but, instead of returning it to her, he took the wallet and put it into his car. Video surveillance footage then shows him taking something out of the wallet while at the pump. He walked inside the store, paid for his gas with cash, likely taken from the wallet, and left the area in his car.

The suspect is a black male in his late 40s or early 50s, approximately 5 feet, 10 inches tall with a thin mustache and beard. He was wearing a grey T-shirt, denim jeans, sunglasses with brown lenses and a blue ball cap with gold lettering. He was driving a white 4-door sedan, possibly a Toyota Camry.

August 12, 2011 (COW 1417 - Debit Card Fraud/Walmart)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help to identify a man who used a stolen bank card.

On Nov. 10, 2010, a man used a bank card to purchase a $400 PlayStation gaming system from the Walmart at 12000 Iron Bridge Road in Chester. Unfortunately, the card he was using was not his own. The victim, who had lost her card on Nov. 10, discovered the fraudulent charge two days later when she reported her card as missing to her bank.

The man seen using the card was a black male, possibly in his 20s. He had a neatly trimmed goatee, and was wearing a dark ball cap and a dark, argyle-pattern sweater.

August 5, 2011 (COW 1416 - Etrick Supermarket Shooting)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program is asking for your help to solve a shooting that occurred in 1991.

On Oct. 4, 1991, Walter H. Eley was locking up the former Etrick Supermarket at 3615 E. River Road in Chesterfield at approximately 10 p.m. As he walked to his car with the store's deposit bag, a white or cream colored Cadillac pulled into the lot and blocked his car. A man got out of the passenger side, approached Eley and demanded the money. The suspect shot Eley three times with a small-caliber handgun and fled the scene. Thankfully, Eley survived the wounds.

The suspect was a heavysset black male, 20-30 years old.
