

Oct. 28, 2011 (COW 1428 - Vandalism of St. Michael's School)

Case Closed

The Chesterfield
County/Colonial Heights
Crime Solvers program needs your help to identify and locate suspects involved with the vandalism of a local school.

Between the evening of Friday, Oct. 7, and the morning of Saturday, Oct. 8, someone broke into St. Michael's School, 8706 Quaker Lane. While inside, the suspect, or suspects, ransacked several areas of the school. Spray paint cans were taken from a storage area and used to paint drug-related pictures and statements all over the interior and playground areas of the school. Desks were turned over, paperwork was strewn all over the floor, sporting equipment was also scattered throughout the gymnasium, glass display cases were broken out and fluorescent bulbs were smashed.

Oct. 21, 2011 (Crime of the Week 1427 - Two South Chesterfield Robberies)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help to identify and find the suspects who police believe committed two robberies in southern Chesterfield County. In each robbery, black males entered the store and immediately approached the clerk, displayed firearms and robbed the store of cash.

The first robbery occurred at Dyson's Store on River Road on Friday, Sept. 16, at about 7:50 p.m. Also stolen during the Dyson's Store robbery was a small .25-caliber semiautomatic handgun. The second robbery occurred at Market Place on Harrowgate Road on Saturday, Sept. 17, at about 10:40 p.m.

Oct. 14, 2011 (Crime of the Week 1426 - Theft from BB&T ATM)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help to identify and locate suspects involved in an ATM theft.

During the early morning hours of Saturday, Oct. 8, Chesterfield officers responded to an alarm call at the BB&T Bank located at 5756 Hopkins Road. When officers arrived, they quickly discovered that someone had ripped the front panel from the ATM and taken money from inside.

There were at least two people involved in the theft. One suspect is described as wearing dark clothing, a dark mask and a dark-colored baseball hat. The van used in the crime was stolen, and the thieves abandoned the van shortly after the theft.

Oct. 7, 2011 (COW 1425 - Suspicious Death)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help to solve a case involving the suspicious death of a Hopewell man. On Saturday, July 30, 2011, at about 5:46 p.m., a report of a suspicious package in the wood line in the 2100 block of Point of Rocks Road was called in to police.

When officers arrived, they found the body of a man. The man was later identified as Sean Bland, of the 400 block of N. Tenth Ave., Hopewell. Mr. Bland was 25 years old at the time of his death. He was found wearing a gray T-shirt, cut-off Dickies and white Reebok tennis shoes. The body of Mr. Bland was found wrapped in bed linens.
