

Dec. 30, 2011 (COW 1437 - Shooting into Occupied Dwelling)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help to identify a shooting suspect.

On Tuesday, Nov. 29, at approximately 11:50 p.m., someone fired a shot into a home on Cameron Avenue in Chesterfield County while the residents were asleep. The residents quickly discovered that a shotgun blast had been fired into the front of the house, shattering a front window and leaving pellet holes throughout the interior. Thankfully, no one was struck and the police were immediately called. Detectives are working on leads, but are asking for the public's help.

Dec. 9, 2011 (COW 1434 - Thefts from YMCA Lockers)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help to identify a person who stole credit cards from a local YMCA.

On Thursday, Nov. 17, between 4:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m., a male suspect broke into at least two lockers at the Manchester YMCA, located at 7500 Hull Street Road. The thief stole cash and credit cards from two victims, and both victims learned of the theft when their credit companies contacted them to ask about suspicious charges.

The same suspect used the stolen cards at Walmart, 12200 Chattanooga Plaza, and Food Lion, 15702 Jeff Davis Highway. He is a black male between 20-30 years of age, approximately 5 feet 8 inches tall and 280-300 pounds, with short black hair and light facial hair. He was wearing a white T-shirt with the word "Giants" printed on it. He was seen driving away in a white pickup truck.

Dec. 2, 2011 (COW 1433 - Vandalisms at Schools)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help to identify and locate suspects involved with vandalisms at two local schools.

Between the evening of Thursday, Nov. 10, and the morning of Friday, Nov. 11, someone vandalized two classroom trailers and a drivers education vehicle at Thomas Dale High School, 3626 W. Hundred Road. The vandals broke several windows out on the classroom trailers and caused extensive damage to the drivers education vehicle by breaking out several of the windows, removing parts and damaging the exterior of the vehicle. Later, the vandals went to Curtis Elementary School, 3600 W. Hundred Road, and damaged several buses parked at the school. Together, the vandalisms at the two schools are estimated to have caused several thousands of dollars in damages.
