Nov. 18, 2011 (COW 1430 - Gift Card Fraud, KMart/Sears)

The Chesterfield County/Colonial Heights Crime Solvers program needs your help to identify two gift-card fraud suspects.

On Monday, Sept. 19, a black female went into the Kmart on Southgate Square in Colonial Heights. She asked a clerk to look up a Sears credit account by Social Security number, then proceeded to purchase more than $3,700 worth of Kmart gift cards on that account. Later that day, a white male asked a Sears clerk to exchange the Kmart gift cards for Sears gift cards, but the transaction never took place. Shortly after the white male left, however, a black male suspect was successful in exchanging $2,500 worth of Kmart gift cards for $2,500 in Sears cards.

The managers at Sears and Kmart discovered what had happened and canceled all of the Sears and Kmart gift cards. The female victim, living in Kansas, was unaware her Social Security number was used until she was contacted by the investigating detective. Kansas authorities are working with the Colonial Heights detective on the identity theft case.
